"The Anson Hardy Cutting Machines are the bese and cheapest low priced machine made, and have a national reputation for utility and durability."—The Electrotyper, Chicago.

THE ANSON HARDY PAPER CUTTER is by THE ANSON HARDY PAPER CUTTER is by far the best machine which can be obtained for a less price than one hundred dollars. It is of great strength. These machines have always taken the highest stand. It is the only machine to which is applied the Patent Movable Cutting Board. This device has a reputation of itself: by it, the cutting board can be instantly and accurately moved. stantly and accurately moved, so that a perfect cut is insured. This is a very imperfect cut is insured. This is a very important point in the machine, and one that is possessed by no other. It greatly reduces the labor of preparation in working the paper backward and forward. We cannot too strongly recommend the advantages of this patent movable board. It is worth the price of this machine, and purchasers should fully understand how highly it is to be valued."—Geo. P. Rouell & Co.'s Newspaper Reporter and Printer's Gazette.

COUNTING THE VOTES.

THE WORK OF THE TWO HOUSES BEGUN.

The Joint Commission--The Rules of Procedure--The Count Begun--A Deadlock on Florida.

The work of counting the votes for President and Vice-President has at last begun. The Joint Commission, organized under the provisions of the Electoral Bill, consists of Justices Clifford, Bradley, Miller, Field and Strong; Senators Morton (Rep.), Edmunds (Rep.), Frelinghuysen (Rep.), Thurman (Dem.), and Bayard (Dem.); Representatives Payne (Dem.), Hunton (Dem.), Abbott (Dem.), Garfield (Rep.) and Hoar (Rep.). Justice Clifford was chosen president of the Commission. The following are the rules adopted for the governance of the Commission in its work :-

RULE I. The Commission shall appoint a Secretary, two Assistant Secretaries, a Marshal and two deputy Marshals, a stenographer and such messengers as shall be needful, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the Commission.

Rule II. On any subject submits ted to the Commission, a hearing shall be had and counsel shall be allowed to conduct the case on each Rule III. Counsel, not exceeding two in number on each side, will be heard by the Commission on the merits of the case presented to it, not longer than two hours being allowed to each side unless a longer time and additional counsel shall be specially authorized by the Commission. In the hearing of interlocutory questions but one counsel shall be heard on each side, and he not longer than fifteen minutes unless the Commission allow further time and additional counsel; and printed arguments will be received.

RULE IV. The objectors to any certificate or vote, may select two of their number to support their objections in oral argument and to advocate the validity of that which they maintain, and in like manner the objectiors to any other certificate, may select two of their number for a like purpose. But under this rule not more than four persons shall speak, and neither shall occupy more than two hours.

Rule V. Application for process to compel the attendance of witnesses, or the production of written or the Marshal of the Commission, or be regulated in such manner as the President of the Commission shall direct. Rule VII. The commission will sit, unless otherwise ordered in, the room of the Supreme Court of the United States, and with open doors, excepting when in consultation, unless a therwise directed.

The Joint Session of the two Houses, for the counting of the votes began at one o'clock, p. m., on Thursday last, and the count was started at once.

After the Alabama certificates had been read, the presiding officer asked, "Are there any objections to the certificates of the State of Alabama?" After a pause—"The chair hears none, and the vote of the State of Alabama will be count ed. The tellers will appounce the vote." Mr. Cook, one of the tellers, announced ten votes for Samuel J. Tilden for President, and ten votes for Tilden and Hendricks. After the presiding officer had asked the same question as in the Alabama case, the California certificates were read by Mr. Stone, and six votes ly fails to be of great profit, were announced for R. B. Hayes reached, and the presiding officer first handed the certificate signed by Gov. Stearns, which recognized the Hayes electors, and after it had been read the certificate of the electors for Tilden and Hendricks was also handed out, and both were read by Mr. Stone, while Mr. Allison overlooked the diplicate. The chair then said that he had still another certificate, received on the 31st of January. He then handed the paper to the tellers, and it proved to be the certified proceedings of the Board of Canvassers, authorized and appointed by an act of the Legislature of Florida, who declare the Tilden and Hendricks electors elected. Included in the papers was the action of the Tilden electors and the subsequent review of the count by order of the Supreme Court. The latter document contains an elaborate detail of the Florida case from a Democratic standpoint. After the reading had progressed some time Mr. Conkling called attention to the fact that the paper now being read had thirtysix wide columns of printed matter. He knew that the statute required that all the papers should be read, but after consultation with members of both houses he thought the law would be complied with by simply reading the result. There was no objection. The result was announced—that the Tilden electors had been elected. The chair then asked if there was any objection to the vote of Florida. David Dudley Field, of New York, arose and submitted written objections to counting the vote of that State. The objection was read by Clerk Adams of the House, in accordance with the provisions of the electoral bill, and the duplicate returns and the objections were referred to the Electoral Commission. After the various objections were read, and there being no further objection, the presiding officer announced that the Senators would retire so that both houses could consider the objections. Senate then retired to their chamber at 3:10, p. m.

WHAT SORT OF SPRING SHALL WE HAVE ?-It will not be advisable to hazard much on an early spring in the year of grace 1877. Why? Be-cause the accumulations of ice and snow in the Northwest and North are unprecedented, and atmospheric currents from these quarters will necessarily be cold until these accumulations disappear, which cannot be expected till late in the season. It is true that with a prevalence of documentary testimony may be made have generally warm weather early, southerly or easterly winds we may by counsel on either side and all probut always subject to blighting nips and frosts whenever the wind his deputies. Depositions hereafter taken for use before the Commission, meet with a set-back. We make no if taken before any Commissioner of the Circuit Courts of the United States, or any Clerk or Deputy Clerk of Court of the United States.

Rule VI. Admission to the public sittings of the Commission shall prophecy, but this seems to be the cropping season when does come .- Macon (Ga.) Telegraph.

> Boston Herald: "A gentleman met a citizenof Somerville recently, and said to him, 'Your home is in Somerville, I believe?' 'No,' replied the Somerville man, my home is in Heaven. 'Let me give you' a little advice,' said the gentleman. You hurry and get a postal card and write your folks that you are never coming home.'

Thiers does not like that President McMahon should be addicted to the sports of the field. The President of France is not a studi ous man, but a soldier and a sportsman, who takes lightly and gayly to amusements, enjoys billiards and his pipe with his children about him. and is content over a game at cards with his wife afterward.

Connecticut came next—the certificates were read by Mr. Allison, and six more were announced for Tilden and Hendricks. The Delaware certificate was read by Mr. Ingalls and three more votes were scored for Tilden and Hendricks. The farmer, upon examining this statement, was heard muttering to himself: "Drayage, wharfage, mistakage, storage, leakage, weighard Hendricks."
